UNITY DAY CELEBRATION REPORT: 2018-2019

DATE: 31ST October, 2018

VENUE: Seminar Hall

TIME: 10:00 AM

Report

The Institute observed Rashtriya Ekta Diwas - National Unity Day 2022 in the College Seminar Hall on Wednesday, October 31, 2018 at 10:00 AM in remembrance of the 143rd birth anniversary of Sri Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel. The Program was initiated by the Lighting of lamp and an introductory lecture by The Officer-in-Charge, Dr. Nimai Chand Masanta. The Officer-in-Charge delivered a presentation on the obligations of students as citizens of India and how national integrity plays a crucial role in overcoming both existing and potential threats to the unity, integrity, and security of the nation. The NSS Programme Officer, Subrata Chakraborty provided an explanation of the purpose and significance of National Unity Day. Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel played a crucial role at the time of independence by persuading numerous princely republics to join the Indian Union. Consequently, his birth day commemorates his endeavors and services.

The students carried out the following activities under the supervision of the faculty members.

Students prepared slides on the following topics

- Life of Sardar Patel
- His Education: School to college.

- Political achievements.
- Statue of Unity.

Unity Walk

The Unity Walk commenced in the morning when students, faculties, and non-teaching staff gathered to take the 'Ekta Diwas Pledge'. The students and instructors of Siyalsai School collaborated in the event. Following the swearing-in event, a 'unity walk' was arranged to the village bus stop in Siyalsai. The group paid homage to the statue of Sardar Patel. This generated awareness among the local populace on the organization. The students carried signs displaying words promoting unity.

Stage Show

Three documentary video excerpts were presented, followed by a highly informative and productive conversation. This provided us with additional knowledge regarding Sardar Patel's ideals and mindset. Subsequently, a quiz was administered, focusing on the highlighted information presented in the three short films.

The Department of History's head delivered a speech on the life and accomplishments of Sardar Patel. He highlighted the political views of Sardar Patel and emphasized the contrasting perspectives between him and Gandhiji. He highlighted the practical application of some of the principles that Sardar Patel lived by.

The Head of the Department of Philosophy emphasized certain philosophical principles that Sardar Patel advocated. He possessed a visionary mindset and displayed a direct and uncomplicated approach to his thoughts, resulting in the establishment of numerous new enterprises in post-independence India.

The performance finished with a rendition of the National Anthem. The entire program was overseen by the College's NSS Coordinator.

Report

On Monday, October 31, 2022, at 10:00 a.m., the Institute observed RashtriyaEktaDiwas - National Unity Day 2022 in the College Seminar Hall to commemorate Sri SardarVallabh Bhai Patel's 147th birth anniversary. The program began with the ceremonial lighting of a lamp, followed by an introductory presentation by the respected Principal, Prof. Nimai Chand Masanta. The principal spoke about students' responsibilities as Indian citizens, emphasizing the importance of national integrity in tackling existing and future threats to the nation's unity, integrity, and security. The NSS Programme Officer, Subrata Chakraborty, explained the meaning and significance of National Unity Day. SardarVallabh Bhai Patel was instrumental in gaining the support of numerous princely states for the Indian Union during the independence struggle. As a result, his birthday serves as a reminder of his achievements and contributions. The pupils engaged in the following activities under the supervision of the instructional staff. Students made slides on the following subjects. The biography of Sardar Patel and his political accomplishments.

Unity March

When the 'EktaDiwas Pledge' was taken by students, faculty, and non-teaching staff in the morning, the Unity Walk could begin. Participating in the event were both kids and teachers from Siyalsai School. A 'unity walk' to the Siyalsai village bus stop was scheduled to follow the swearing-in ceremony. The assembly paid respects to the monument of Sardar Patel. The local community became more aware of the organization as a result of this. Words encouraging unity were displayed on the signs that the students carried.

Performing Arts Presentation

After three clips from documentaries were shown, a fruitful and educational discussion ensued. Because of this, we now know more about Sardar Patel's philosophy and values. After watching the three short films, students were given a quiz that covered the material that had been emphasized.

Sardar Patel's life and accomplishments were the subject of a speech given by the chairman of the history department. He brought attention to Sardar Patel's political beliefs and the ways in which they differed from Gandhiji's. He emphasised how some of Sardar Patel's ideals could be put into practice.

The head of the philosophy department highlighted some of Sardar Patel's guiding philosophical concepts. Many new businesses were founded in post-independence India as a direct consequence of his innovative thinking and his straightforward way to expressing his ideas. A rendition of the national anthem was performed to close out the performance. The NSS Coordinator at the college oversaw the whole program.

BIJOYA SAMMILANI CELEBRATION REPORT: 2019-2020

DATE: 14th October , 2019.

VENUE: Seminar Hall

TIME: 10:00 AM

Report

The students of GGDC Mohanpur held a Bijaya Sammilani Event on November 14, 2019, within the college premises. The BIJAYA SAMMILANI celebration at GGDC, Mohanpur was a festive occasion that united students, instructors, and staff on the campus. The objective of the celebration was to foster a sense of cultural cohesion among the college community. The Seminar room was adorned with vibrant décor that mirrored the festive ambiance. The dynamic ambiance fostered an engaging and all-encompassing encounter for all individuals on the university grounds. The event commenced with a ceremony to honor Goddess Durga, followed by an opening speech delivered by the institution's Principal. He emphasized the significant significance that festivals play in fostering harmony within a community and its inhabitants. In addition, he emphasized the importance of Durgpuja and the triumph of truth over deceit. The Secretary of the Teachers Council also extended greetings to the kids on the historic occasion. A diverse range of cultural performances were showcased, including dance, music, and recitation acts performed by exceptionally skilled pupils. These performances demonstrate the wide range of abilities present in the college community. This festival involves active engagement from students across all departments. The inherent characteristics of the event meant that everyone experienced a profound sense of delight, contributing to the overall success of the celebration.

Student Credit Card Programme Report:

Date: 18th November, 2021.

Venue: Seminar Hall (Room No. 207).

Report:

Government of West Bengal has recently introduced Student Credit Card Scheme to facilitate financial needs of the students who want to pursue higher education and other professional courses. In order to outreach to our students with a comprehensive idea about the whole scheme we had organized An Awareness Program on Student Credit Card on 18th November, 2021 in our college Seminar Hall (Room No. 207). The programme was attended by the respected Principal Sir, TCS Sir, teachers and students.

Report of Barsha Baran 2019

Barsha Baran marked the new beginning of a Bengali New year and also a college cultural extravaganza, unfolded with vibrancy and zeal, captivating audiences with its rich blend of talent and creativity. The event, held in the sprawling campus grounds, showcased the diverse cultural heritage of the region. The programme was organized around the third week of the April month of the year, in the year 2019 it was organized on 18th April

The program began with the lighting of lights and an opening statement given by the respected Principal, Prof. Nimai Chand Masanta and then the ceremony dazzled with a fusion of traditional dance forms and contemporary music performances. Students adorned in colorful attire mesmerized the audience with their graceful movements and rhythmic beats. The atmosphere was electric, pulsating with energy and excitement.

Throughout the day, various competitions and activities engaged participants and spectators alike. From literary debates to artistic exhibitions, every corner of the college campus buzzed with activity. Most important thing is that all the students were participated in this event. Distribution of sweets mark the holy beginning in the Bengali community so does the college follow such customs by distributing sweets among the students, teachers and the non teaching staffs. In this context we can utter a famous line from a great Bengali poet, Rabindranath Tagore "Nana Bhasa, Nana Matt, Nana Paridhan; Bibidher majhe dekho Milana Mahan" which means that India is a diverse country having different linguistic, ideological and attire background inspite of, it maintains the unity among themselves. As the sun set, the grand finale illuminated the stage with dazzling lights and pyrotechnics. Renowned artists took center stage, enthralling the crowd with their captivating performances. The night sky echoed with cheers and applause, marking the culmination of a memorable celebration of culture and talent.

Report on International Day of Non – Violence, 2018

The International Day of Non-Violence was commemorated at our college with fervor and dedication, echoing the timeless principles of peace and non-violent resistance espoused by Mahatma Gandhi. Held on October 2nd, the occasion not only honored Gandhi's birthday but also served as a poignant reminder of his enduring legacy in inspiring positive change worldwide. All students of the Department of History and Sociology were present.

In our college, students, faculty, and staff joined hands to celebrate this significant day through various activities and events. From thought-provoking seminars and interactive workshops to artistic performances and peace marches, the campus buzzed with energy and enthusiasm as participants engaged in discussions and activities centered on the theme of non-violence.

The celebration provided a platform for our college community to reflect on the importance of non-violence in today's world and to reaffirm our commitment to promoting peace and harmony both locally and globally. Through educational initiatives and awareness campaigns, students and faculty showcased their dedication to fostering a culture of non-violence and empathy within the college campus and beyond.

Ultimately, the celebration of the International Day of Non-Violence in our college was not just a commemoration but a call to action, inspiring us all to emulate Gandhi's principles of truth, love, and non-violence in our daily lives and to strive towards a more just and peaceful world.

Report on International Day of Non – Violence, 2019

The International Day of Non-Violence was observed with great enthusiasm and reverence at our college, echoing the profound ideals of peace and non-violent resistance epitomized by Mahatma Gandhi. Held on October 2nd, the event resonated deeply within our college community, serving as a tribute to Gandhi's enduring legacy and his transformative impact on the world stage. All students of the Department of History and Sociology were present.

Our college campus came alive with a myriad of activities and initiatives dedicated to commemorating this significant day. From enlightening seminars and interactive workshops to creative displays and peaceful demonstrations, students and faculty alike actively participated in various events aimed at promoting the ethos of non-violence.

Through engaging discussions and thought-provoking presentations, participants delved into the relevance of non-violence in contemporary society and explored strategies for promoting peace and social justice. The celebration also provided a platform for fostering dialogue and understanding among individuals from diverse backgrounds, reinforcing the importance of empathy and mutual respect in resolving conflicts.

As the day unfolded, a sense of unity and purpose permeated the campus, reaffirming our collective commitment to upholding the principles of non-violence in our interactions and endeavors. The celebration of the International Day of Non-Violence in our college not only honored Gandhi's legacy but also inspired us to be catalysts for positive change in our communities and beyond.

The college program commemorating World Wildlife Day was inaugurated with great reverence by our esteemed Principal, Prof. Nimai Chand Masanta. Held on March 3rd, the event served as a platform to celebrate the diverse flora and fauna inhabiting our planet while also highlighting the pressing need for conservation efforts.

Throughout the day, students, faculty, and staff participated in a range of activities aimed at raising awareness about wildlife conservation and environmental stewardship. Interactive workshops, educational seminars, and captivating exhibitions provided opportunities for attendees to learn about various species, their habitats, and the threats they face.

The program also emphasized the importance of collective action in protecting wildlife and preserving biodiversity. Participants engaged in discussions on sustainable practices and conservation initiatives, exploring ways to mitigate human impact on ecosystems and promote coexistence with wildlife.

Additionally, the event featured inspiring presentations and success stories of conservation efforts from around the world, showcasing the positive outcomes achievable through dedication and collaboration.

Overall, the college program on World Wildlife Day, inaugurated by Principal Prof. Nimai Chand Masanta, was a testament to our collective commitment to safeguarding the natural world. It inspired individuals to take proactive steps towards conservation and instilled a sense of responsibility towards preserving our planet's rich biodiversity for future generations.

Report on World Wild Life Day, 2021

Amidst the challenges posed by the pandemic, Principal Prof. Nimai Chand Masanta inaugurated our college's World Wildlife Day program, transitioning seamlessly to an online platform on March 3rd. Despite the virtual setting, the event united students, faculty, and staff in a shared commitment to wildlife conservation and environmental stewardship.

Through a series of virtual workshops, webinars, and interactive sessions, participants explored the importance of protecting our planet's diverse wildlife. Engaging presentations and informative discussions provided insights into the threats facing wildlife habitats and the urgent need for conservation action.

Moreover, the online platform facilitated global engagement, allowing participants to connect with experts and conservationists from around the world. Through virtual tours of wildlife reserves, live streams of endangered species habitats, and interactive Q&A sessions, attendees gained a deeper appreciation for the beauty and fragility of our natural world.

Despite the physical distance, the program fostered a sense of community and collective responsibility in safeguarding wildlife. Through online forums and collaborative projects, participants exchanged ideas and pledged to take meaningful action to protect biodiversity in their local communities.

In summary, the college's World Wildlife Day program, adapted to an online platform due to the pandemic, underscored the resilience and determination of our community in advocating for wildlife conservation, even in challenging times.

REPORT OF THE FINANCIAL AWARENESS PROGRAM: 2023-2024

DATE: 14. 03. 2023 at 11.30 am

REPORT

The Financial Awareness Program at Government General College, Mohanpur was organized with the objective of equipping students with essential financial literacy skills necessary for their personal and professional lives. The program, held on 14/03/2023, and involved active participation from both students and faculty members, aimed to educate students about various aspects of finance, including budgeting, saving, investing, and managing debt. The program was initiated by the lighting of lamp and an introductory lecture by the Office-in-Charge, Dr. Nimai Chand Masanta. Other eminent speakers delivered their valuable lectures.

Activities:

- a. The program featured interactive workshop sessions conducted by financial experts and professionals from the banking and investment sectors. Topics covered included understanding personal finance, effective budgeting strategies, the importance of saving, and basic investment principles.
- b. Engaging panel discussions were organized, providing students with insights from industry professionals, alumni, and faculty members. These discussions covered a wide range of financial topics such as career planning, managing student loans, and navigating financial challenges post-graduation.

OUTCOMES:

1. The Financial Awareness Program equipped students with fundamental financial knowledge, empowering them to make informed decisions regarding money management and financial planning.
2. Participants demonstrated a positive change in their financial behaviors, with increased awareness of the importance of budgeting, saving, and investing for their future financial well-being.
3. Insights gained from industry professionals and alumni helped students better understand the financial implications of their career choices and develop strategies for achieving their financial goals.

The Financial Awareness Program at Government General College, Mohanpur was highly successful in promoting financial literacy and empowering students to make sound financial decisions. By providing valuable insights and practical knowledge, the program has equipped students with essential skills necessary for navigating the complexities of the financial world with confidence and competence.

Report of the Programme

International Mother Language Day is observed on 21st February every year in the college to promote linguistic and cultural diversity and multilingualism. The day has a bloody history of martyred occurred on 21st February, 1952 when 5 persons were died and hundreds of others were injured to counter the imposition of Urdu as mother tongue and to establish Bengali as mother tongue. To commemorate this incident from 1999 UNESCO declared the 21st February as World Language Day.

This year college organizes World Language Day on 21/02/2019 to promote Bengali Language and to commemorate martyred who sacrificed their life for the sake of mother tongue. At the beginning of the programme honourable officer in charge renders inaugural speech illuminating the history of sacrifice for the sake of mother language after inaugural song sung by students of Bengali Department. Honourable Teachers Council Secretary also delivers enriching speech on the mother language. Faculties from Bengali and English department deliver special lecture on that programme. Students with reciting poem, dancing at the interval of every speech make the entire programme enjoyable to all. Entire programme is anchored by convener of cultural Sub-committee.

CULTURAL COMPETITION & PRIZE DISTRIBUTION:

Dates: 03.01.2019 & 04.01.2019.

Reports:

It is now widely believed that education is not only a matter of direct classroom teaching-&-learning. Rather, education is the overall development of a student's personality. By practicing such belief we organize Cultural Competition and Prize Distribution every year. The Government General Degree College at Mohanpur recently held a vibrant Cultural Competition followed by a grand Prize Distribution Ceremony. This event was organized on 03.01.2019 & 04.01.2019 with the aim at showcasing the diverse talents of the students and celebrating their achievements in various cultural activities. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and was graced by esteemed faculty members and special guests.

The event commenced with a traditional lamp-lighting ceremony, symbolizing the dispelling of ignorance and the ushering in of knowledge. The Officer-in-Charge, Prof. (Dr.) Nimai Chand Masanta delivered the inaugural speech, emphasizing the importance of cultural activities in holistic education and personal development.

The cultural competition was a confluence of various art forms and performances. The categories included dance, essay writing, extempore, recitation and singing. The event also included Quiz Competition facilitating the intellectual exercises of the students.

Over 200 students participated in the competitions, displaying their skills and creativity. The performances were judged by a panel of experts made of the faculty members from the college's arts department.

The Government General Degree College at Mohanpur recently organized a Cultural Competition followed by a Prize Distribution Ceremony. Our institution organized the event on 02.01.2020 & 03.01.2020. This event aimed to provide a platform for students to showcase their diverse talents and celebrate their achievements in various cultural activities. The event saw enthusiastic participation from students and was attended by esteemed faculty members and special guests.

We attempted to make the event vibrant and exuberant. The event began with a traditional lamp-lighting ceremony, symbolizing the illumination of knowledge. The Principal, Prof. (Dr.) Nimai Chand Masanta, delivered the opening speech, highlighting the significance of cultural activities in comprehensive education and personal growth. The cultural competition featured a wide range of performances and exhibitions, including dance, essay writing, extempore, recitation and singing. The event also included Quiz Competition facilitating the intellectual exercises of the students.

The prize distribution ceremony was the highlight of the event. Winners and runners-up in each category were awarded trophies, certificates, and medals. The Chief Guest, [Chief Guest's Name], a distinguished personality in the arts, presented the awards and delivered an inspiring speech on the importance of cultural activities in nurturing talent and building confidence. The Cultural Competition and Prize Distribution Ceremony at Government General Degree College, Mohanpur, was a resounding success. His speech was seconded by the TCS Dr. Rajendra Prasad De. It provided a platform for students to exhibit their talents and receive recognition for their efforts. The event fostered a spirit of creativity and camaraderie among the students, reinforcing the college's commitment to holistic education.

The college extends its heartfelt gratitude to all participants, faculty members, judges, and the organizing committee for their dedication and hard work in making this event a memorable one. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by the Cultural Committee Head, who acknowledged the contributions of everyone involved in the successful execution of the event. The ceremony ended on a high note with a group photograph and refreshments for all attendees.

CULTURAL COMPETITION & PRIZE DISTRIBUTION:

Dates: 03.01.2023 & 04.01.2023.

Reports:

Gilbert K. Chesterton once said, “Education is simply the soul of a society as it passes from one generation to another.” If that is so it could be further added that every educational institution is responsible to encourage and generate social nature in the students by organizing cultural competitions and organizing events of awards distribution.

On January 3rd and 4th, 2022, Government General Degree College at Mohanpur organized its annual Cultural Competition and Prize Distribution program. This event was designed to provide students with a platform to showcase their diverse talents and celebrate their achievements in cultural activities. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and was attended by faculty members and special guests.

The event began with a traditional lamp-lighting ceremony, symbolizing the pursuit of knowledge and enlightenment. The Principal, Prof. (Dr.) Nimai Chand Masanta, delivered an inspiring inaugural speech, emphasizing the importance of cultural activities in the holistic development of students.

The cultural competition featured a variety of performances and exhibitions, captivating the audience with the students' creativity and skills.

The prize distribution ceremony was the highlight of the event. Winners and runners-up in each category received trophies, certificates, and medals. The Secretary of the Teachers' Council, Dr.

Rajendra Prasad De, delivered a motivational speech on the value of cultural activities in nurturing talent and confidence.

The Cultural Competition and Prize Distribution Ceremony at Government General Degree College, Mohanpur, was a resounding success. It provided students with a platform to showcase their talents and gain recognition for their efforts. The event fostered a spirit of creativity and camaraderie among the students, reinforcing the college's commitment to holistic education.

The college extends its heartfelt gratitude to all participants, faculty members, judges, and the organizing committee for their dedication and hard work in making this event memorable.

REPORT OF THE NATIONAL LIBRARY DAY

DATE: 12.08.2018

VENUE: Seminar Hall

TIME: 11.30 AM

REPORT:

The programme started with the tribute to S.R.RANGANATHAN through the garland ceremony.

Inaugural Speech by Principal

The National Library Day was celebrated with great fervor at Mohanpur Government College, echoing the nationwide reverence for literature and knowledge. The event commenced with an inaugural speech by the esteemed Principal, Dr. Nimai Chand Masanta. In his address, Dr. Nimai Chand Masanta emphasized the pivotal role libraries play in nurturing intellect, fostering a culture of learning, and preserving our collective heritage. He highlighted the significance of the National Library Day in promoting the love for books and reading among students, faculty, and the community at large.

Dr. Nimai Chand Masanta underscored the rich legacy of libraries in India, dating back to ancient times when Nalanda and Takshashila served as beacons of learning. He stressed that in today's digital age, where information is readily available at our fingertips, the essence of libraries remains unchanged—they are sanctuaries of wisdom, offering a quiet refuge for contemplation and exploration. The Principal urged everyone to utilize the college library to its fullest potential, not only for academic pursuits but also for personal enrichment and intellectual growth.

Furthermore, Dr. Nimai Chand Masanta expressed gratitude to the faculty members and librarians for their dedication in maintaining and enriching the college library. He encouraged them to continue fostering a conducive environment for learning and research, ensuring that the library remains a vibrant hub of knowledge for generations to come.

Speech by Professor Rajendra Prasad De

Following the Principal's address, Professor Rajendra Prasad De, took the stage to share his insights on the significance of libraries in shaping society. Professor Rajendra Prasad De commenced his speech by delving into the profound impact of literature on human civilization, spanning across epochs and cultures. He elucidated how libraries serve as reservoirs of human thought, encapsulating the collective wisdom and creativity of mankind.

He highlighted the transformative power of books in fostering empathy, critical thinking, and cultural understanding. He stressed the importance of cultivating a reading habit, not merely for academic success but also for personal enrichment and holistic development. Drawing from his own experiences, He shared anecdotes and literary excerpts to underscore the profound influence of books on individuals and societies.

Moreover, He emphasized the role of libraries in democratizing access to knowledge, thereby bridging socioeconomic disparities and empowering marginalized communities. He called upon the audience to actively participate in initiatives aimed at promoting literacy and library outreach programs, thereby ensuring that the benefits of reading are accessible to all segments of society.

In conclusion, Professo reiterated the timeless relevance of libraries in fostering a culture of enlightenment and intellectual curiosity. He urged everyone to cherish and support their local libraries, recognizing them as invaluable repositories of human civilization's most precious asset—knowledge.

The National Library Day celebrations at Mohanpur Government College concluded on a note of inspiration and renewed commitment to the pursuit of knowledge. The inaugural speeches by the Principal and Professor resonated with the audience, reaffirming the enduring importance of libraries in shaping individuals and societies alike. As the event drew to a close, attendees departed with a sense of purpose, resolved to uphold the legacy of libraries and celebrate the joy of reading throughout the year.

REPORT OF THE TREE PLANTATION PROGRAM: 2018-2019

DATE: 01. 07. 2018 at 11.30 am

REPORT:

A Tree Plantation Program at Government General Degree College, Mohanpur was organized with the aim of fostering environmental awareness among students, promoting sustainability, and enhancing the green cover on campus. The event took place on 23.03.2019 and involved active participation from both students and faculty members. The program was initiated by the lighting of lamp and an introductory lecture by the Office-in-Charge, Dr. Nimai Chand Masanta.

Activities:

- I. Planning and Preparation: The program was meticulously planned by a dedicated committee comprising students and faculty members. The committee identified suitable areas on campus for planting trees and arranged for the necessary resources including saplings, gardening tools, and manpower.
- II. Awareness Sessions: In addition to tree planting, the event featured informative sessions on the importance of trees in mitigating climate change, enhancing biodiversity, and improving air quality.
- III. Sustainability Initiatives: The Tree Plantation Program also served as a catalyst for initiating long-term sustainability projects on campus.

OUTCOMES:

- A. The Tree Plantation Program significantly contributed to enhancing the greenery on campus, making it more aesthetically pleasing and ecologically sustainable.
- B. By actively participating in tree planting and attending awareness sessions, students gained a deeper understanding of environmental issues and their role in conservation efforts.
- C. The Tree Plantation Program laid the foundation for ongoing sustainability initiatives, fostering a culture of environmental stewardship within the college community.

The Tree Plantation Program of Government General Degree College, Mohanpur was a resounding success, reflecting the commitment of the college towards environmental conservation and sustainability.

The program was initiated by the lighting of lamp and an introductory lecture by the Office-in-Charge, Dr. Nimai Chand Masanta.

Activities:

Planning and Preparation: The program was meticulously planned by a dedicated committee comprising students and faculty members. The committee identified suitable areas on campus for planting trees and arranged for the necessary resources including saplings, gardening tools, and manpower.

Awareness Sessions: In addition to tree planting, the event featured informative sessions on the importance of trees in mitigating climate change, enhancing biodiversity, and improving air quality.

Sustainability Initiatives: The Tree Plantation Program also served as a catalyst for initiating long-term sustainability projects on campus.

OUTCOMES:

- a. The Tree Plantation Program significantly contributed to enhancing the greenery on campus, making it more aesthetically pleasing and ecologically sustainable.
- b. By actively participating in tree planting and attending awareness sessions, students gained a deeper understanding of environmental issues and their role in conservation efforts.
- c. The Tree Plantation Program laid the foundation for ongoing sustainability initiatives, fostering a culture of environmental stewardship within the college community.

The Tree Plantation Program of Government General Degree College, Mohanpur was a resounding success, reflecting the commitment of the college towards environmental conservation and sustainability.

TIME: 11.30 AM

REPORT:

The institute organized a workshop on World Book Day in the college seminar hall. The workshop inaugurated with the ceremonial lighting of a lamp followed by an introductory talk delivered by the esteemed Officer –in-charge Dr. Nimai Chand Masanta. After that Prof. Avisake Chakraborty gave the lecture and discussed about the importance of books to gain our knowledge and encourage the students to grow their reading habit.

Introduction: World Book Day is a global celebration of books and reading, observed annually on April 23rd. It is a day dedicated to promoting the importance of literature, encouraging people to discover the joy of reading, and highlighting the significance of books in shaping our lives and cultures.

History: World Book Day was first proposed by UNESCO (United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization) in 1995 as a worldwide celebration of books and reading. The date, April 23rd, was chosen to coincide with the anniversary of the deaths of notable literary figures such as William Shakespeare, Miguel de Cervantes, and Inca Garcilaso de la Vega, who all passed away on this date.

Purpose: The primary objective of World Book Day is to promote literacy and the love of reading across all age groups. It serves as a platform to celebrate the power of books to inspire, educate, and entertain. By encouraging STUDENTS to read and engage with literature, World Book Day aims to foster a culture of lifelong learning and personal development.

Activities and Events: College Library organized many activities and events for the students to grow their interest in reading books and gain knowledge. Some events are discussed below:

1. Book Swaps: Communities may organize book swap events where individuals can exchange books they have already read for new ones, promoting recycling and sharing of literature.
2. Reading Challenges: College libraries launch reading challenges or competitions to encourage students to read more books and explore different genres.
3. Storytelling Sessions: Storytelling sessions for the students are organized to introduce them to the joy of storytelling and reading.

Global Impact: World Book Day has had a significant global impact in promoting literacy and reading culture. It has helped raise awareness about the importance of books in education and personal development, particularly in regions where access to books and educational resources may be limited. By celebrating books and reading on a global scale, World Book Day fosters a sense of community and shared cultural appreciation for literature.

Conclusion: In conclusion, World Book Day serves as a reminder of the transformative power of books and the written word. It is a day to celebrate the rich diversity of literature and its ability to inspire, educate, and unite people across the globe. By encouraging reading and promoting literacy, World Book Day contributes to building a more informed, empathetic, and intellectually vibrant society.
